Dear Ms. Chakrabarti,

I wish you every success in the preparation of your paper. You can only learn about writing papers by reading those already written and by trying to write one yourself. Of course, you should call upon your professors for comments and tips. There is no way by which good advice can come from someone at a distance.

The age of 19 is remarkably young to write a paper, but evidently you have a good deal of ability and self-confidence. Congratulations.

Sincerely yours,

Kenneth J. Arrow
